John

They asked him, "Then who are you?" He answered, "I am not a prophet."
"Finally he said, "Who are you?" Give us an answer that we can believe in, who are you? What do you say about yourself?"
"I am the voice of one calling in the desert," he answered.
"Now some Pharisees who had been sent questioned him, "Why then do you baptize if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor Elisha?"
"I baptize with water," John replied, "but among you stands one you do not know."
"Who is he?" they asked.
"The one I have said is the one who stands in the desert," he answered.
"The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!" This is the one I mentioned when I said, "A man who comes after me ranks ahead of me because he was before me."
"I baptize with water," he said, "but you stand here and you do not baptize with water?"
"I baptize with water," he said, "but you stand here and you do not baptize with water?"
"I baptize with water," he said, "but you stand here and you do not baptize with water?"
